

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA LOSES DEBT CASE

Washington, June 14.—The supreme court decided the long standing Virginia-West Virginia debt case holding West Virginia should pay $12,393,929 as its net share of the Virginia debt at the time of the partition of the states. The report of the late Charles E. Littlefield, as special master was upheld in all particulars except one minor finding. The court held that West Virginia was entitled to its share of the assets arising from the original principal debt and fixed that amount at $2,966,000. West Virginia is required by the court to pay $8,178,000 in interest computed at three per cent from 1891 to date and four per cent from 1861 to 1891.

TWO KILLED, FIVE OFFICERS WOUNDED IN RACE RIOT IN SOUTH CAROLINA

ANOTHER NEGRO IS LYNCHED BY A GEORGIA MOB

Winneshore, S. C., June 14.—A white man named Eisenhauer and his wife, a negro, charged with criminal assault, were killed and five officers were wounded, during a riot here early today when a mob attempted to lynch a negro from the officers. During the fight that followed, Smith's body was riddled with bullets.

Smith was to have been placed on trial here today charged with attacking a white woman. He had been held in the state penitentiary at Columbia for safekeeping. Sheriff Hood and his deputies, with Smith under close guard, had reached the court house yard when a mob of armed men attempted to seize the prisoner. Some one fired at the negro and the shooting became general and lasted for ten minutes. When order was restored a special train was chartered to take the wounded to a hospital at Columbia.

Adjutant General Moore had been notified of the situation and was on his way from Columbia by automobile bringing a supply of ammunition. It is said that the militia were unable to aid in maintaining order because they had no cartridges.

Today Is The Day You Should Honor World's Prettiest Flag-The Stars And the Stripes

Today is Flag Day in the State of Ohio. The governor of your state has proclaimed it such, asking that every citizen of the Buckeye State pay honor to the most beautiful piece of human handiwork in the world—the Stars and Stripes.

There are a thousand and one reasons why every reader in Portsmouth should kneel and thank God that they are living under the protection of these Stars and Stripes, chief among them being that instead of being rushed over battlefields, being torn with shot and shell, and slained with the blood of thousands of America's young men. It is waving peacefully this day in every city from coast to coast, from lakes to gulf.

There is no dividing line now—the Stars and Stripes is called "My Flag" by every citizen in these United States, whether he was born in America, or whether he adopted the "Land of Freedom" as his home.

Have any of you ever seen the immigrant ships coming into New York or San Francisco harbors? There's where one sees the proof of the oft-repeated statement—"The Stars and Stripes are the protectors."

These immigrants, many of them fleeing from other countries to escape excessive taxation, and for many other reasons see "Freedom" written in between the red and white stripes, see humanity in the blue and justice sparkling from the white stars. They have heard of this wonderful banner, perhaps they have seen it majestically floating from some steamer way back in their home port—they have heard of the great America—and of the freedom and protection given under the Stars and Stripes and as their boat touches Ellis Island they see streaming from the immigrant station there the Stars and Stripes. They weep, and with their tears come cheers. They know the officials therein are subjects of the Stars and Stripes and that they will get fair treatment—it's known world over.

And tonight Portsmouth and all America is lucky, for the Stars and Stripes are waving as they have for many years—peacefully.

Thousands Forced To Walk As 14,000 Men Stop Service On Two Systems

Chicago, June 14.—What is said to be the greatest street car strike ever called in the United States began here at four o'clock this morning. Fourteen thousand persons were thrown out of employment, 1,310 miles of single elevated and surface track were rendered idle and a burden thrown on steam roads, automobiles, vans and other vehicles which they were able to meet only in small part. For four hours not a car moved. The south side elevated train carrying a few passengers made a round trip as a test. As a result it was announced that an attempt would be made to run trains with strike breakers and guards every 15 minutes. The surface lines made no attempt to work. Policemen and private guards were stationed all over company property but no disorder was reported early. Business was not paralyzed but only in small part. For four hours not a car moved. MOSCOW MOB RULES CITY FOR TWO DAYS, WRECKS AND PILLAGES

Moscow, Friday, June 11.—(By mail to Petrograd, June 14, via London)—Moscow for two days past has seen street rioting and anti-German demonstrations of a serious nature. The police have found it impossible to control the crowds and the people indulged their desires of looting until they were tired out.

The demonstrations started because of an outbreak of illness among some men employed in a factory. This led to the belief among some of the lower classes that German sympathizers had poisoned the drinking water of this factory. All day Thursday and until Friday morning they looted and destroyed Russian workmen demanded dismissal of German employees at the factory in question. This was refused.

They banded together carrying Russian flags and singing the national anthem. They moved in the direction of the central square of Moscow, their numbers swelling every moment. They were joined by the unemployed and a gathering of hoodlums. Here it was that the destruction began. German shops were selected in the beginning, but later the operations of the mob extended to every establishment, or store, that bore other than a Russian name. Consequently many places actually owned by Russians were wrecked.

Thursday night there were fires in various parts of Moscow. The mob became drunk on the spirits it looted from liquor stores and its fury increased during the night. The police endeavored to maintain at least a semblance of order, but they had been surprised by the outbreak and found it impossible to exert any real control.

Finally the exhausted rioters quit of their own volition. Friday morning an attempt was made to continue the disorders, but by that time the police had been reinforced by troops and shots were fired over the heads of the mob. By this method a resumption of the disorders was prevented.

Several casualties have been reported as a result of the disorders.

Two Portsmouth Girls In Pictures, Columbia Tonight.
The second reel of pictures in the celebrated "Ohio Beauty Contest" will be shown at the Columbia this evening and this reel contains two beautiful girls from our own home city, Portsmouth. Come and guess who they are and vote for them.

The regular program this evening is a return engagement of one of the best Paramount pictures, same being shown here some time last fall, and proving such a good picture. Manager Tynes is repeating it this evening for the benefit of those who missed it, and also those who wish to see it again.

It is "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch" with Henrietta Crossman in the leading part. Just think of a star of Miss Crossman's reputation in motion pictures and you will readily see what a treat is in store for you at the Columbia tonight.

This subject makes a most beautiful and interesting picture in four reels, and the supporting company is all that could be desired, including such actors as Harold Lockwood, Walter Craven, Lorraine Huling and Gertrude Norman.

Don't overlook the Columbia this evening. First show at 6:30, then at 7:30, 8:30 and 9:30.

Just think of the opportunity to see such a star as Henrietta Crossman in her most successful play for 10 cents.

Glassy Shows At Lyric This Week.
"Otherwise Bill Harrison," the big Esmaney feature today, with Jos. Bryan Tetten and Ruth Stonehouse in the stellar roles is a mighty fine picture. You can't be disappointed in it. The comedy today is also a clever one from the Vitaphone Co., "Almost a Hero." All the girls fall for him, and then he falls so hard that he doesn't know what struck him.

Dustin Farnum, America's distinguished favorite, is the star tomorrow in the Paramount Picture, "Captain Courtesy," a five party romantic drama of the days when Mexico invaded California. The whole production is a masterpiece, thrilling scenes and humorous situations being happily blended in a way that makes it a mighty pleasant story.

Wednesday we have Richard Travers and Ruth Stonehouse in a stirring dramatic offering called "Above the Alps," and on Thursday comes the Queen of the Screen, "Mary Pickford" in "Cinderella," a return engagement, at ten cents, and we want every kid and kiddie in town to come and see this picture in the afternoon for a nickel.

"The Goddess," the big, beautiful serial from the Vitaphone Co., starts at the Lyric theatre next Monday, then every Monday. This is without a question the most expensive and most elaborate production the world has ever seen to date. The stars, Anita Stewart and Earle Williams, need no introduction. They are the best in the business and the Vitaphone Co. know how to make wonderful pictures. You will be able to read the story every Saturday in the Times and see the picture the following Monday at the Lyric. So remember to read the Times next Saturday and don't miss the first chapter of the picture at the Lyric Monday.

Nance O'Neil in "A Woman's Resurrection" at the Sun Theatre Today.

Nance O'Neil, with her vital personality and compelling magnetism is beyond question America's most eminent emotional actress. She has been proclaimed as such by no less a master of stagecraft than David Belasco, in whose drama "The Lily" she electrified New York audiences into perfect storms of enthusiasm. She appears today at the New Sun theatre in the wonderful character of "Princess Rommoff," based upon Victorian Sardais' greatest play "Fedora." You will enjoy this wonderful drama so do not fail to see it, to day and tomorrow at the Sun.

Four Big Reels at the Arcata Theatre Tonight!

Beginning with tonight's bill, Manager Potts has arranged to give a four reel program, making this show the biggest and cheapest in the city. Every night with the exception of Saturday, which is his big feature night, Manager Potts, who is always keeping a weather eye open for anything that will add to the pleasure of his patrons, has secured an extra reel for each night and this move will no doubt be highly appreciated.

His program for tonight is most surely a headliner, starting as it does with a two reel drama, entitled "The Steel Pigeon," featuring J. Warren Kerrigan and Vera Sisson, two big favorites. His second feature will be a sensational one reel railroad drama entitled "The Strike at Coal-dale," while the last feature will be a one reel comedy of the New brand, entitled "All in the Sunko Road." Remember, that despite the additional one reel, the price will remain at 5 cents, which should make the Arcata one of the best patronized motion picture theatres in the state.

At The Pastime, Sciotoville
"Refining Fies" is a two-reel American drama being offered as one of the headliners at The Pastime in Sciotoville today. "The Veil of Sorrow" is a Beauty drama. "An Inside Trip" is a Thelmauer drama.

Tomorrow's program, "The Sea," a two-reel Domino, "Giddy Gaps" and "Tidbits," a Keystone comedy, and "The Alarm of Angelon," an American drama.

5c At Temple Theatre
"The Spark From the Flare" is a strange tale of crossing fates. Frank Hozare, Elizabeth R. bridge, Juan De La Cruz and J. P. Lockney are in the cast. The third reel is "There's One Love," a very touching romance of a lone zone day, featuring the Thelmauer Twins. The fourth reel is "The Baby," a startling tale of a small boy's revenge. Baby Guerin, Oliver Johnson, Violet Radloff and Francis Carpenter, an all child cast Wednesday the new "Exploits of Elaine." Ten episodes.

BEAR HUNT IS STAGED ON STREETS OF PORTSMOUTH

One of the large cinnamon bears of the Smith Greater Shows escaped Monday morning and created no little excitement in the North End.

A "burr"-call was sent to the show ground and Pop Smith, with a touring car filled with trainers appeared upon the scene. It was feared at first that someone would get hurt, as it seemed that every woman and child of the neighborhood was on the scene. After a chase lasting for seven or eight blocks, one of the men succeeded in getting a rope about the bear's neck, and the bear chase was over. Chief of Police McCarthy responded to a call but missed the hunt.

The Smith Greater Shows arrived in the city over the N. & W. road Sunday afternoon and began unloading early this morning. The show will open tonight on the old mill lot.

The show is under the auspices of the Steamfitters' Union.

Rev. Olmsted Talked On The "Millennium"

"The Millennium" was discussed last night by Rev. J. E. Olmsted, at the Gospel tent, Gallia and Offshore. A number of texts were read from the old and new testaments showing that the millennium will begin at the second coming of Christ and end 1000 years later when the wicked are resurrected and punished, as recorded in Revelation 20.

Reference was made to the "Seventh Plague," of Rev. 16, which speaks of the great earthquake that "turns the earth upside down," and destroys the prestige of man.

The most remarkable statement of the evening was read from Jer. 4:23-26, which doubtless refers to the millennial condition of the earth, after the redeemed had been "caught up to meet the Lord in the air." The prophet says: "I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities were broken down at the presence of the Lord, and by his fierce anger."

"The speaker declared emphatically that the idea of a millennium of so called 'peace and good will on earth' is pleasant to contemplate, but that the Bible gives no such hope, since Matt. 24:12-13 reads: 'Because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold, but he that shall endure shall be saved.'"

"The Crash of Empires" will be Mr. Busby's subject tonight.

REV. CHAPMAN INSTALLED

REV. W. P. CHAPMAN

"I have come to your city for no other purpose than to help my race and my church to become better Christians. I realize there are problems here that no other organization on earth can solve, save the church of the living God. I have accepted this charge that I may help." These were the statements made by Rev. W. P. Chapman Sunday evening, June 13, 1914, when he was installed pastor of Pleasant Green Baptist church, and a review of his past year's work finds that he had made rapid strides in his work.

During the year ending June 1st there had been turned into the church $1340. "We are indebted to our white friends, as well as colored, for our great financial success," says Rev. Chapman. There was paid out on improvements to the church $712.50. The church and exterior alike being made much more attractive by the completion of needed repairs. The improvements when completed will represent an outlay of over $1400.

The old debt hanging over the church has also been greatly reduced during the year. The present efforts of the members is to pay off the original debt. The old debt in round numbers will reach $530. There are some taxes to be paid.

There have been sixteen additional members to join the church since June 1st, 1914, and of these twelve are active workers.

K. of P. Lodges Hold Memorial Services

Joint memorial services were held at Sciotoville M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the K. of P. lodges of Sciotoville and Wheelersburg. About 75 members of the two lodges gathered at the hall on Main street and marched to the church where Rev. L. J. Hopper of the local United Brethren church delivered the memorial sermon. He chose as his subject "Digging the Memorial Well." The church was filled with the lodge members and their friends.

The graves of deceased members were decorated Decoration Day.

SCIOTO COUNTY DAISIES WERE BROOKLYN WEDDING DECORATION

Beautiful daisies grown in the fertile fields of Scioto county formed the decorative scheme in Strong Place Baptist church, Brooklyn, N. Y., on the occasion of the wedding of Miss Edna Jackson and Theodore Olmstead Saturday.

Miss Jackson is the charming daughter of Rev. C. L. Jackson, pastor of the Brooklyn church, and a brother of Dr. E. C. Jackson, well known dentist, of this city. The bride's father was here last week having stopped over for a brief visit and became so smitten with the daisies he saw that he decided to surprise his daughter in the above manner.

Dr. Jackson at his brother's request, visited the Jesse Dever farm place on the West Side, and got two automobile loads of the little yellow flowers. The shipment he sent East weighed exactly 91 pounds. Several acres of the Dever farm place are thickly grown with daisies.

JUST A THOUGHT.

The country has been full of rumors, for a week or so, that Germany was going to buy up all the munition factories in this country and then promptly shut them down so that the chief source of supply for her enemies would be cut off.

They make a story that administrators flatteringly to German efficiency, but one that is born of fertile imagination and a more or less laudable desire to boost the prices of steel stocks. The greatest contractors to the Allies for supplies of war, are the Bethlehem Steel works. Its stocks has climbed around a hundred per cent this year and it is not at all likely that Charlie Schwab and the others who formed and managed it are going to quit making hay while the sun shines by selling out, or transferring control.

But this talk brings up a thought on that preparedness for war about which we hear so much and the wonder is that it has not before been presented. This is that the government, as one of the best precautions for defense, should establish or see that the same is done, in the center of the country, amply equipped works and factories for turning out powder and ordnance. As it is now the factories given to the production of these supplies are mostly located rather close to the Atlantic seaboard and if the country is so vulnerable to invasion as the proponents of preparedness for war claim, they would, in the event of conflict, fall readily and quickly into the hands of the invaders.

A PARTIAL REMEDY.

Considering the frightful total taken by the deadly automobile, the Parkersburg Journal falls to speculating upon the best means of safeguarding from its ravages and suggests that every person, expecting to drive a machine before being first permitted to do so, should undergo an examination and receive a certificate of fitness, in addition to being required to give a bond to operate his machine carefully and to make reparation for injuries inflicted through his incapacity, or negligence.

Undoubtedly this would help, let us say considerably, since its result would be to visibly affect the number of machines bought and operated, and would also dispose of boys and girls as drivers to a large extent.

Still, it would not reach the chief cause of the accident mortality wrought through the use of the automobile. This is not so much the result of incompetency, as recklessness and negligence. It is in the American nature to take a chance and of results he is in a large part heedless. Inherently the automobile is not a particularly dangerous vehicle; indeed, seeing the vain and careless manner in which it is so commonly handled and the yet comparatively few mishaps that ensue, we sometimes almost conclude it is quite harmless. Our idea as to the best method of making it altogether docile would be the certain and strict infliction of penalties provided against its misuse. You can't very effectively punish the fellow who speeding bursts a tire and hurts himself and his fellow joy riders on an eternal hike, you can't levy a judgment on the heedless one who tries to beat a train over the crossing, but authorities can fine and penalize with stiff penalty those who violate regulations and the ordinary requirements of prudence and thus enforce to the widest measure safe and sane driving. It is because there is practically no enforcement of traffic laws and ordinances that there is so much reckless driving, though let it be said that comparatively there is less and less as the use of the machine becomes more common. It is to be reckoned that the time will eventually come when there will be no more scorching than there was racing in the days when the horse propelled vehicle was the most general method of recreation. Let us repeat, it is our belief that the day can be hastened by diligent and impartial enforcement of statute and ordinance.

Poor old Colonel Blenkner, door keeper of the assembly for so many years that no living soul other than himself can reckon them, his faith in human nature is pathetic. He actually went through the members' desks, after they had gone home for good, to see if he couldn't find something they left behind and return it to the state.

Doc Dernburg sailed Friday for Berlin, or as near thereto as he could get, but we still have William J. with us in perpetuity.

"THE HEAVEN BORN BANNER"

UNFURLED HER STANDARD TO THE AIR
SHE TORE THE AZURE ROBE OF NIGHT

SHE MINGLED WITH ITS GORGEOUS DYES

AND STRIPED ITS PURE CELESTIAL WHITE
WITH STREAKINGS FROM THE MORNING LIGHT."

WILL GET THEIRS.

Passports, issued in this country to Leon Raines and Karl Recknagel, have been ordered cancelled because these two wretches, now in Germany, have not only published articles in the German papers denouncing the American government and President Wilson, but have gone to the extreme of making declaration in the same manner that they are ashamed of their American citizenship.

They are surely a precious pair of rascals, claiming protection of a powerful government as its citizens and then hasting far away to malign and repudiate it. It is regretful that there is no physical way of punishing the wretches, beyond cancelling their passports. Still they will get in a keener and more excruciating way what they deserve. They are right now men without a country and when peace comes and the passions of war begin to subside they will find themselves outcasts from all decent men. For the betrayer and the traitor always finds the level of his crime.

There is nothing that hasn't a drawback. Michigan, after taking but a homeopathic dose of progressivism, finds her great industry, the Ford Motor Company, can not incorporate therein, because in her haste to war against capital she limited the capital of organized companies to twenty-five million, just an even fourth of what Ford has.

In view of revelation being made from day to day in an investigation of graduating conditions at Annapolis academy, it is a fair surmise that "the honor of the navy" does not begin to sprout until the certificates are handed out.

What fools, after all those Allies must be. They are buying untold millions bushels of grain in this country, and yet, according to the veracious G. O. P. organs, Argentine grains are so cheap that they are being brought to this country and sold below the home products.

As an expert The Times of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, gives the opinion, that the effort to prove a fellow-citizen insane because he gave sometimes as much as a penny for a tip should and probably will fail.

One hundred and fourteen years ago this month, the Pasha of Tripoli declared war against the United States and fifty-four years ago France declared neutrality in the civil war.

It is grossly apparent that this patriotic profession of the G. O. P. politicians and organs to "stand by Wilson" is taken with a huge hunk of mental reservation.

Marion is considering an ordinance to put a muffler on all the roosters in town—that is the feathered one. Her slumbers may still be disturbed at any hour of the night by the ungodly tooting of the auto horn.

The state board of health doesn't like the sewer arrangements of the Poorfess. That is not surprising and the town can felicitate itself that it has a system of sufficient importance to be found fault with.

Bryan is mistaken, as usual, when he sees already a strong revolution in favor of peace. There were none worth counting that ever wanted war.

Marion mourns because even her semi-professional ball team has melted into the dim, though not distant past. And to think there was a day when it aspired to rank baseballically with the Poorfess.

Josephus Danriks shows a disposition to side along with Bryan, but at that if Wilson ordered the navy to clear for action we feel Josephus would not back away from signing.

No matter how exciting the game it palls after awhile. Mexico has a new president, but its the first one in almost four months.

Hush, now, don't say another word. Woodrow is all to the good, for 'Freddy himself says he is back of him in every word.

Evident that the Michigan resort man who calls his hotel the Rugghouse doesn't believe there is anything in a name.

Agreed with the Chicago Tribune, Mr. Bryan has resigned and the country is.

Say, remarks the sage of the Edwardsville, Illinois, Intelligencer, have you noticed that a man never shows his temper without first losing it?

Eighty-eight million gallons of whiskey were distilled in the United States last year. Did you get your share?

Ten billion copies of newspapers were printed in 1914. To this grand total The Times contributed 3,410,000.

There are forty-eight states. May be you will be able to remember this tomorrow and then again you may not.

VOTE FOR

H. H. (BERT) KAPS

Republican Candidate for Nomination of

MAYOR

Primary Tuesday, August 10.

New York June 14.—The Century Theater has capitulated to Broadway. Instead of being a "temple of drama" as was originally intended it will produce henceforth Ned Wayburn's Town Topics which will be after the manner of the Ziegfeld Follies shows.

Planned to emulate the Theater Francaise in Paris and the Hofburg in Vienna, the Century will soon become a typical London music hall. The roof will be rebuilt and the Century Lyceum destroyed to construct places for dining, wining and dancing after a slap bang vaudeville and whirlwind revus.

The Century will be operated along the lines of Continental music halls, such as the Empire and Palace in London and the Winter Garden of Berlin. The show will start off with vaudeville skits, then a revue dash and glitter after which the patrons may adjourn to tall glasses, tinkling ice and fringe variations.

Life on the farm is great sport for some city boys. The eight-year-old son of a well known Broadwayite has been visiting on a farm. The father got this letter the other day:

Dere father—I am having a luvie time. I no a kid named Skeets Wilson and me and him are it up here. We hate three fellers up today and I got the tooth we knocked out of one's mouth. 'Tontie we are going to steel old man Link's cow and cut the tassel off her tale. I no a hog I can ryde in the pig pen and a mule kicked me yesterday. I got a pet rat to take to bed with me and tomorrow I am going to get a snake to put down Aunt Em's back. Won't that be ridiculous?—Willie."

James Hebron, who for thirty years was doorman at Delmonico's—Dear Old Del's—and who called Tammany's chieftains, Wall street kings and social leaders by their first names, related in a million dollars while earning $1 a day at his door opening job.

Jimmy is now passed sixty and is weighted down with troubles. He is trying to recover $80,000 worth of real estate which he says his son got away from him when his mind was not working right. The son, he says, blew in the money in Wall street.

Jimmy made his money by tips on stocks given to him by the prominent men who dined at Delmonico's.

Suppose civilization as we have known it does disappear from Europe. A staggering thought, but there is no need to despair. There is hope! Also: There is a reason! Just when we begin to lose our grip over the wanton brutality of Yurrap along comes Julia Seton, M. D. with an idea. (Pronounced "idear" in Brooklyn and all along the Jersey coast.)

Miss Seton has founded the Home of New Civilization in Oceanview-on-the-Hudson. You may interview her on new thought ideas for a dollar or so an interview and you may rent bungalows for from $50 to $250 per season.

It looks like civilization might be saved after all the worrying we have done about it lately.

A Simple Constipation Remedy—Try It

For quick, positive relief from constipation, sour stomach, biliousness, inactive liver, bad breath, and all the ills that follow them nothing as yet has been found to quite equal that old, time-tried compound of may-apple root, aloes and senna.

Recognized as one of the standard remedies, physicians daily prescribe it, many preferring it to all others, and especially calomel. They like it because, being purely vegetable, it's not nearly as harsh as calomel; it never grips; is never followed by any of the dangerous after-effects that so often result from the use of calomel.

This standard remedy, ready-prepared, may now be had under the name of Sentalen Laxative Tablets. Be sure you get the original Sentalen Laxatives, put up in the box that has the picture of the soldier on it. In this form it is much more convenient and easier to take than in the old-fashioned powder or capsule form—cheaper, too; a 10c box of Sentalen should last one several weeks. A physician's sample package (4 doses) free to any one answering this advertisement. The Sentalen Remedies Co., 801 Madison Ave., Croyton, Ky.

Brightness of Life
A thought that is winged from a friend to friend
Doesn't seem such a wonderful thing;
Yet it enures the prayer for a joy without end,
And it throbs with a big, friendly ring.

A mere word of cheer in the shadow of night,
When discouragement darkens the way,
Will illumine our hearts with the glorious light
Of a hopeful and sun-brightened day.
When failure confronts us and darkens our goals,
How we long for the clasp of a hand!
It is then that we cry from the depths of our souls
For a friend who can just understand.

A bright, cheery smile often gives us the strength
That we lack in the vortex of strife,
For it lightens our load as we travel the length
Of the care-laden path we call Life.

So we find, after all, that the things we thought small
Loom colossal above all the host;
That the best of God's gifts are the friends we can call
To our side when we need them the most.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

Washington, June 14.—The supreme court today disposed of the so-called Kentucky Webb-Kenyon liquor case without determining the constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law, or passing on its constitutionality.

The Kentucky case was a prosecution of the Adams Express Co. for bringing liquor for personal use from Tennessee into Whitley county, Kentucky, a dry territory.

Justice Day for the court, held it was bound to accept the decision of the Kentucky court of appeals, that the Webb-Kenyon law was not applicable. Under that decision the conviction of the express company was set aside.

The supreme court also declined to review the reversal by the sixth United States circuit court of appeals of the officials of the National Cash Register Company of alleged violations of the Sherman anti-trust law.

It also today declined to review the conviction of Drew Canine, 11, of Sacramento, Calif., on charges of violating the White Slave law.

WHY I BELIEVE IN Y. W. C. A.

Because the Y. W. C. A. is intended to reach all the women of the community without reference to social standing or faith. It is undenominational.

Because of the wider vision and its four-fold purpose of developing the mental, social, physical and spiritual.

Because it provides a comfortable, pleasant home for many women away from home and friends, where they are surrounded by good influences and proper restrictions.

Because it provides classes in dressmaking, millinery, cooking, embroidery, etc.

Because it reaches many women through its social life in the form of parties, picnics, camps and other forms of amusement.

Because it ministers to the spiritual, through its Sunday vesper services and numerous religious meetings in shops and factories.

Because through its gymnasium it affords entertainment and develops strong bodies out of weak ones.

Because it unites the Christian womanhood of the community into a closer bond as they work together for the upbuilding and developing of the highest type of womanhood.

Because I believe that no greater work can be done than the conservation of the young womanhood of a community—and the guiding and directing them so they may not fall into lives of sin and impurity.

I believe that the work has wonderful possibilities and is deserving of a liberal support.

The Sale Of Popular Favor The Dove Of Peace

By Leora Irene Houston
Oh! Give to me power ye mountains—
Ye mountains so stately and strong,
And lend me your voices, ye fountains,
To mantle my spirit with song.
Each brimming and beautiful chalice,
O'er flowing with ruddy delight,
In the souls most luminous palace,
I'll pour out in music tonight.—FOR PEACE!

Ye rhythmical spheres, that in glory,
Once hymned the salvation of man,
Oh! Touch me the marvelous story,
That the angels in heaven began:
How sweet was the song as it floated
Down—down through the crystalline bars,
Till man caught the echo full-throated,
And shouted it back to the stars.—FOR PEACE!!!

Ye winds that have battled with ocean,
And poured your shrill pipes on the blast,
Or swelled like a living emotion,
That swelled the great heart of the past,
Whose whisper the life-blood may curdle—
Who sweep o'er each nation and clime,
Oh! lend me your wings to engirdle
The earth in an instant of time.—FOR PEACE!!!

Go Over New Line

George W. Stevens, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and M. J. Caples, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Northern, inspected the new line of the latter from Waverly to Sciotoville Saturday afternoon, making the trip in an automobile. It was Mr. Stevens first inspection of the branch line and he was greatly impressed with the headway that is being made. He left Sunday for Richmond and Mr. Caples returned to Columbus.

Sarver, of Vinton avenue, and Thompson is the son of N. W. Thompson, of Linden street. They will be pleased to meet their old friends. Phone 324-Y.

GETTING ONTO THE ROPES

Joseph Stevens, county treasurer-elect of Pike county, will spend this week in the office of Treasurer M. J. Caldwell at the court house, familiarizing himself with the duties of the office. He expects to install a number of the methods used in Mr. Caldwell's office in the Pike county office.

The rupture over hours of service and wages came last night when Mayor Thompson admitted that his attempts at mediation was a failure. At four o'clock the last car had been quietly retired and the struggle was on with the union. The men posted pickets where the employers advertised for strike-breakers and W. D. Mahon, national president of the street car employees, returned to Detroit, his headquarters, the better to direct the financial phase of the strike.

A carload of strike-breakers was reported to have arrived secretly from Cincinnati. It was stated that no attempt would be made to run surface cars for several days.

Officials said that no attempt would be made to operate cars today. Approximately three million fares are collected on the two electric systems daily. The surface lines collect 2,400,000 and the elevated 600,000. There are 3,125 cars operated daily by the surface lines and 1,518 on the elevated, which operates 215 miles of track. The surface line operates 1,095 miles. Hurried preparations were made overnight by officials of steam lines to bring to work today the great armies of clerks in stores, office workers and others in business in the downtown district. Hundreds of trains are added to the schedules. Taxicabs did a rushing business and the "jitney" busses, which heretofore have failed to make much progress in the transportation problem were loaded with passengers. Hundreds of big motor trucks also were pressed into service. Roller skates also were brought into use and thousands pedaled to their work on bicycle.

Delivery of the United States mails puzzled the people. The reorganization of the street car delivery system will have to be undertaken, it was announced and in many of the suburban districts there will be one delivery a day until another system is perfected. It was understood that the dozen or more street cars carrying the mails from the main post office to the sub stations in various parts of the city would be operated as usual.

Mrs. Ella Plagg Young, superintendent of public schools, asserted that attempts would be made to continue schools without interruption although the problem of transporting 7,000 teachers gave great concern.

Arrangements to furnish 5,000 strike breakers to operate cars and guard property were put into operation today. Agents of the two electric line had arranged, it was said, to provide food and sleeping quarters in several large hotels. Employment agencies did a record breaking business in procuring men for strike breaking duty.

Danquet halls, sample rooms and even the roofs of the large downtown hotels have been converted into sleeping quarters for nearly 15,000 persons who will be obliged to live near their places of business during the strike. The demand for cots to be placed in office buildings was exceedingly brisk. Thousands of persons have planned to sleep in their offices.

Managers of theatres within the business district announced that they would close unless the strike was speedily settled. Baseball at the National league park, the only Chicago club now on the home grounds, probably will be postponed after today's game.

The closing of some of the big summer parks in the outlying districts was regarded as certain.

KNIFE PLUNGED INTO BERNARD FRIEL IS FATAL; TWO MEN CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Eye Witness Stories Claim The Assault Was Unprovoked

Joe Bertram And James Patton Are Bound Over Without Bond; Bertram Claims Self Defense

For no apparent reason that police can learn, except that a drink crazed mind guided the hand that wielded the knife, Bernard Friel, Jr., aged 34 years, a shoemaker, was without warning fatally stabbed at Cropper & Hollar's saloon, corner Eighth and Broadway streets, Saturday night at 9:25. He died of hemorrhages at Hempstead hospital several hours later.

Joe Bertram, aged 37 and William A. Patton, aged 38, were locked up at the city prison, the former charged with the cutting while Patton is held as an accessory.

Bertram to a Times representative claimed self defense, admitting that he cut Friel once on the cheek but denies that it was he who inflicted the fatal knife blow in the stomach. Patton flatly denies any connection with the cutting. Both Bertram and Patton entered pleas of not guilty at a preliminary hearing held Monday morning and were held to the grand jury on first degree murder charges without bond. They were not represented by counsel.

Bertram Offers No Defense

The fatal stabbing, according to several eye-witnesses, was one of the most unwarranted in the annals of the city and has caused much feeling over town. Police officials contend that the two men held for the crime started out looking for trouble.

Bertram had no statement to offer at the preliminary hearing held in the mayor's court Monday morning. He had expected a lawyer to be present to defend him and when none came decided it was to his interest to remain silent.

That the lie was passed between Bertram and Friel, that there had been some argument over nationality but that Friel neither by word nor action had given sufficient offense to justify someone killing him were brought out by

Said Bertram And Patton Sober

Mr. Hollar said Bertram and Patton struck him as being thoroughly sober. He heard no exclamations and did not know how they came together.

He said when Friel fell he (Hollar) ran around the end of the counter to his side and asked him if he was hurt but received no answer. There were from twenty to thirty people in the room at the time but he could remember only a few of them. He

Saw Friel Fall

Bartender Jim Bradshaw testified that he was standing at the cigar case when his attention was attracted by the screen shaking. He said he stepped from in front to the rear of the screen and then saw Friel take about two steps toward him and fall.

Mr. Osborn did not prove the important witness police had been led to believe he would be. He, after considerable questioning, did remember passing two men on the Broadway crossing and seeing one with a knife. He said this man uttered an oath and

Friel's Only Remark

Ed McNamara was the next witness. He said he did not know Friel and had just been introduced to Bertram by Hammock as he and Hammock started to leave the place. Hammock and Bertram got to talking about some school work and Bertram invited them to drink with him. Friel was standing up against the screen. Suddenly Bertram stepped aside to greet another friend and ask him to drink. An instant later Bertram put his arms around Hammock's neck and remarked to mara declared he did not see the knife until the second blow or the one in the stomach was inflicted. He said Friel exclaimed "You

Did Not See Knife Opened

He testified that he would have seen Bertram open the knife had he done so but that it was possible for Bertram to have stepped aside and done so without attracting his notice. Hammock, he said, grabbed Bertram and Patton and said "Don't all of you jump on Joe."

McNamara said Bertram and Patton appeared to have been drinking.

Claims Heard The "Lie" Passed

William Templeman said he had been in the place perhaps three minutes and was within a few feet of Bertram and Patton when he heard the lie passed. He heard the man whom he afterwards learned was Friel tell Bertram that he was mistaken and had the wrong fellow. He said he saw Bertram strike him with what he thought was his fist, he said, had not said anything to justify anyone killing him. He said he caught Friel by the arm as he fell and he never spoke a word after he was struck. He was asked by the court to stage the cutting as he saw it and did so, showing how Bertram stepped back a step or so before he struck Friel. He slitted that Patton pushed old man Henniger and told him to stand back

Hammock An Important Witness

John Hammock was regarded as a most important witness and therefore was privileged to relate the circumstances in his own language just as they occurred to him. He said he was employed as a foreman and timekeeper on the new Garfield school job and lived with a sister at High and Grant streets, having been a resident of Portsmouth for about five years. He said he had just returned from a several weeks' trip to Iowa and Wisconsin and when he met Bertram and Patton, both of whom had formerly worked for him, they naturally got to talking about the school job. He said it was between 7:30 and 8 o'clock when he and McNamara entered the saloon by a side door. They went into a small private room and had been there about an hour, he drinking bottled beer when Hollar stepped in and asked him dirty dog" and took one step forward, holding his hand against his stomach and blood was running out over his hand.

D. L. Webb, Jr., testified that he had been in the saloon not over five minutes, leisurely drinking a glass of beer when he noticed the racket at the other end of the room. He said that he saw Bertram backing out from amongst the crowd with open knife in his hands and deliver it up to Officer Campbell. He said he was shocked over the affair. He did not know any of the principals.

and not shove up. Templeman said he never saw any knife. C. C. Henniger, an aged and long whiskered man of the Harper farmplace, who had been doing porter duty at the saloon, testified that he and Charles Snadgrass were seated at a table discussing the world war when attracted by the rustling of feet, Snadgrass obstructed his view so he jumped to his feet and he saw Bertram and Hammock locked together. Thinking they were fighting, he rushed between and separated them. Hammock, he said, struck at him but instead hit his pipe, knocking it from his mouth. He said his only purpose was to keep the fuss down and he didn't know anyone had been cut until some moments later he saw the blood on Friel's face.

how he liked his place. Hammock assured him he was considerably taken up with the way he had his room arranged and then McNamara suggested that they go out for a walk. They started for the front door when they met Bertram. He shook hands with him and he asked them to take a drink with him. They did so. Patton then asked him (Hammock) why he had barred him from the school job. The witness said he assured him that he had discharged him solely on orders from the superintendent. He said Patton swore and declared he was as good a hand on the job as any of the others but did not care about the job particularly, saying he had a better one at the Breese plant and boasted of his ability as a lumber stacker. Bertram, meanwhile, had stepped away and was next noticed talking with Friel.

Bertram Talks To Friel

Hammock said as he passed them Bertram placed his arm around his neck remarking to Friel "This is the boy." He said Friel made some sort of a reply about sticking to "your own people" and he thereupon asked them what the argument was about. Friel told him sharply that it was their argument and for him not to butt in.

Saw Bertram Use Knife

He said he assured him that he did not like to see anyone have any trouble and that he then started to pass on when he saw Bertram stick him with a knife. He said Friel had not gathered himself together when Bertram plunged the knife into his stomach. He said he grabbed Bertram to keep him from using the knife again and Patton grabbed him (Hammock) by the throat and to him appeared as if he was trying to cut him with the Barlow knife he had in his hand. He said he managed to tear himself loose and grabbed a chair but somebody else grabbed him.

He said Officer Campbell then deputized him to guard Bertram which he did. He said on the way to police headquarters Patton threatened to "get" him for having struck him. The witness now re-enacted the cutting scene for the information of the court and Prosecuting Attorney Joseph Micklethwait, showing exactly how Bertram held and wielded the knife.

Patton Laughed Scornfully

Patton laughed scornfully when the witness told of how he had attacked him with a knife.

With the conclusion of Hammock's testimony the state rested.

Patton Denies Implication

Patton was asked if he had anything to say. "Nothing more than that I had nothing to do with the cutting," said he. He claimed he had a half of a glass of beer before him and was standing with his back against the counter trimming his finger nails. He was asked to step up to the bench and exhibit his hands. The court carefully examined the man's finger nails and remarked that they did not look as though they had been trimmed any. Patton attributed their appearance to the filthy condition of the city prison.

Patton said he saw Joe make a Beck but did not see any knife but he saw his hand under his coat and he also denied striking Hammock. He said he had pushed up into the front end of the service wagon and that Hammock deliberately struck him on the nose drawing the blood. He said he appealed to the other officers and asked if prisoners were at the mercy of outsiders who had been deputized for duty and that one of them took Hammock to task warning him against repeating his act.

Officer John Smith was called to the stand and asked the name of the man who after the cutting

Prisoners Bound Over

This ended the testimony and the court after referring to the atrocious nature of the crime affray reported that Patton had threatened him with a knife. He said he had the name written in a memorandum book in his other uniform at home but thought Mr. Webb knew the name. Mr. Webb was then asked and said he believed it was Joe Rickman, of Eighteenth street. Both Bertram and Patton identified the knives on the mayor's desk as their property.

Wife And Children Greet Patton

A pathetic scene followed the close of the hearing. Patton's wife, three young daughters and little baby boy who had vainly tried to push their way through the crowded court room during the hearing now filed into the room. Patton kissed them in turn and holding his little son in his big strong arms pressed him tightly to his breast. The wife and mother and little girls sobbed bitterly. Patton, with tears in his eyes, now led them before the mayor. He expressed his heartfelt sympathy for them and turning to Patton told him his trouble was due to the fact that he drank too much. Patton replied that he had taken only a couple of drinks and maintained his innocence of the cutting. He was finally led away. His loved ones trailed behind him standing for a half hour or more at the prison door, he fondling his baby boy through the iron bars. The youngest of the girls, an unusually pretty child, sobbed as though her heart would break and even strong hearted officers accustomed to such scenes, were visibly affected. Turnkey Joe Stokley gave her a coin telling her to buy some bananas but while she accepted the money it did not have the effect of appeasing her and with heavy heart the little family ambled from the place uncertain as to what the future held in store for them. The money Patton had in his prison slip, amounting to $1.05, was upon his request, turned over to his wife. As he bid his wife goodbye he said, "Well, Elta, do the best you can."

To The Casual Observer

Friel had just called for a glass of beer and was standing against the screen near the front of the saloon room when Patton is said to have seized him by the throat while the other plunged a knife blade into his body. Friel sank to the floor. It was first supposed

Patton And Bertram Placed Under Arrest

Officer Delbert Campbell, who chanced to be passing through the room, disarmed Bertram, arresting both him and Patton while bystanders applied restoratives to Friel who had fainted away. He was rubbed with alcohol and came dangerously near dying before Dr. Charles Wendelken arrived in response to a hurry call.

The wounded man, who had lapsed into an unconscious state, was removed to a rear room, where his wounds were dressed. He was then placed on a stretcher in the city service wagon. His alleged assailants were also placed in the wagon.

The wagon had hardly gotten under way when Patton attacked him had merely been slugged but when an instant later Bertram, flourishing a blood-stained knife high above his head, demanded gang-way and blood was seen spurting from the prostrate man's wounds, the extent of the assault dawned upon the awestricken spectators.

a man named Hammock, who had volunteered his services and was holding one end of the stretcher. On this account the wagon changed its course and hurried to headquarters to discharge the two prisoners. Friel steadily grew weaker but had regained consciousness.

Ex-Policeman Jake Cropper spoke to him when the trip to Hempstead hospital was resumed. Friel returned the greeting and remarked faintly: "I guess they got me, Jake." It was exactly 10:30 o'clock when the wounded man reached the hospital. Dr. Wendelken, who preceded him to the hospital, was joined by Dr. Fitch in attending him.

Death Comes With Early Morn

Rev. Father J. E. McGuirk at the request of relatives administered the last rites of the Catholic church to the dying man. Friel expired at exactly one o'clock Sunday morning.

The body was turned over to Undertaker Ray Lynn to be prepared for burial. Coroner Dr. Walter Daehler held a post mortem at the Lynn morgue Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

The coroner found that the wound which caused death was an external stab in the upper abdomen, two inches to the left of the median line. It was just a small cut, a half inch long, penetrating the abdominal cavity and causing a split in the stomach three inches long. The liver was also slightly cut or nicked and the pancreas was cut three inches in length. Friel also had a cut on the back of the head four inches long and another on the cheek near the left eye.

Cutting Happened Very Suddenly

The cutting happened so quickly and quietly that it was some time before persons in the crowded saloon realized what had taken place.

Officer Delbert Campbell said: "I was greatly surprised at the sudden occurrence. Just a moment before, I entered the place speaking to various acquaintances as I walked through the room to the rear. When I emerged a few seconds later, I saw some men up next to the screen in the act of shoving. The blind was shaking. There seemed to be four or five men in the bunch.

"The next thing I saw a man fall," said Campbell. "And Bertram throwing a knife over his head and yelling 'give me the road.'"

Policeman Blocks Alleged Knife User's Escape

"And they certainly gave it to him, all of them scattering. He was making for the back door and I stepped between him and the door. I told him to shut the knife and give it to me. He turned around and gave me a sour look as though he was going to attack me but I raised my voice and told him I would kill him if he didn't give up the knife. He then handed me the knife which was bloody, saying 'It was all shoved on me, I'll go anywhere with you.' Then Mart Hollar told me to get the other fellow (meaning Patton) saying he was into it too." Hollar and Jim Bradshaw, the

Bertram Tells His Story To Times; Says Friel Had Knife

While he offered no defense at the preliminary hearing, Bertram told a Times representative Monday that he expected to employ counsel and that his plea would be self-defense.

Bertram claimed that Friel had a knife and led the attack upon him.

Bertram's Story

He said he and Patton and others were standing at the bar talking about work and various things and he among others mentioned something about a Hungarian with whom he had trouble at the Garfield school job. He said Friel then called him aside and asked him if he was going to "set 'em up" to him. He said he told Friel that he only had about a dollar in change and Friel called him a liar, saying he had seen Martin Hollar give him a five dollar bill. He said Friel then remarked "You been talking about Hunkies, why you're even worse than them" or words to that effect.

Said Friel Struck At Him With Knife

He said Friel struck at him with a knife and he struck back inflicting the cut on the cheek but denied that it was he who plunged a knife into his abdomen. He said he was so drunk that he had only a hazy recollection of exactly what language they used toward each other. Bertram somewhat repudiated Patton for not telling while on the stand that he had seen Friel make a move with a knife and instead only telling of seeing him (Bertram) with his hand under his coat tail.

No Knife Found On Friel

Coroner Dr. Walter Daehler after learning of Bertram's claim made an examination of Friel's, the murdered man's personal effects and failed to find any knife among them. He will not return a verdict in the case for several days.

bartender on duty, who had just sold a glass of beer to Friel, both claimed that no words had been exchanged between Friel and the man who attacked him.

Upon his arrival at police headquarters Bertram exclaimed dramatically "May God strike me dead if I had anything to do with it." Both he and Patton appeared to have been drinking. Patton also had a large and ugly knife on his person. Bertram's knife, the instrument of death, is of ordinary shape and made with a rather long blade.

Claim Two Men Made Serious Threats

Police claim to have an important witness in Jay Osborn, a Hill Top citizen. Osborn told them, police declare, that he passed Bertram and Patton standing on the railroad tracks of the Broadway crossing. Both had their knives out and one of them remarked: "We'll get some —" tonight." Osborn said he purposely crossed over to the Joe Distel saloon to avoid them, they going into Hollar & Cropper's place. They are also said to have threatened a man named Rickman one of them remarking, according to the police, "I got a notion to cut you down to my size."

No Words Passed Before The Stabbing

Johnson Cropper corroborates the claims of his partner, Mr. Hollar and Bartender Bradshaw that no words preceded the cutting or as he put it "If there were they must have been awful low." He also stated that none of the parties were drunk. Hollar had been behind the bar directly in front of Friel but did not know he was cut until he saw him sink to the floor next to the screen. Hollar, Cropper, Bradshaw, D. Webb, William Templeman, J. Osborn and Joe Hall are among the witnesses who will be subpoenaed by the police to appear at the preliminary hearing.

The saloon where the cutting occurred is the latest to open in the East End, Cropper & Hollar engaging in business there just a few weeks ago.

Bertram A Local Laborer

Bertram for the past five weeks had been employed at the Breese Manufacturing Company's plant as a laborer. Previously he worked as a typesetter for his brother-in-law, Archie Heigh, at the Grayson, Ky. News. He is a son of Redden Bertram and has been making his home with his brother, Dick Bertram, 2329 Eighth street. He is unmarried. The latter called at the city prison Sunday morning and was permitted a brief interview with his brother.

Patton In Previous Cutting Scrape

Patton is married and the father of four little children. He lives in an alley house directly at the rear of the Bertram home in Earlytown. Records show that on April 15th he seriously stabbed his foreman, Robert J. Minnery, at the N. & W. planning mill in East Portsmouth following a heated exchange of words over some work. Minnery was cut in the left side, back and head, the knife just missing his heart. Some extenuating circumstances caused the mayor to simply hold Patton to the grand jury on his own recognizance and he was never indicted. Both he and Minnery were dismissed from the service of the railway company as a direct result of the trouble. Patton is a native of Garrison, Ky., moving to Portsmouth four years ago.

Talked To Friel Before The Stabbing

Friel was known as a young man of quiet and reserved disposition, inoffensive and the last person to ever provoke a quarrel or fight. Police Officer John Smith conversed with him about twenty minutes before the cutting took place, and says he was perfectly sober. Friel was standing at the ice cream spot from a blue crepe dress? MABEL.

Try chloroform or ether or call me up and I'll tell you where you can get a cleaner that will remove the stain.

Dear Dolly.—I kept steady company with a young man for almost a year and thought lots of him until here lately. Recently a charming out-of-town girl came to Portsmouth on a visit and my beau deserted me for her. She flattered around town like a butterfly and had all the boys at her feet. Now she has left town and all the boys want the girls they turned down back again. Mine is especially penitent and begs me to take him back. Would you or would you not, Dolly? If I do he is liable to leave me for the next pretty girl who comes to town. INDIGNANT.

I think I would let him wait awhile if I were you. If he were so easily won away once, he would be again. Inconstancy in a man's character is something that cannot be guarded against, and it is something that cannot be "educated out" of it. Don't put yourself in the position of being made a convenience of. Of course you should not have given up all your time to this man when you were not engaged. That is never a good idea because it is likely to give a man too great a sense of his own importance in your life. For some reason or other out-of-town people have some peculiar and unusual attraction to all of us, and probably your friend was no exception. It seems to be a case of the "grass in the next meadow being sweeter," but don't be worried about his apparent infatuation, because that kind is not often lasting. You can easily tell by his persistence in seeing you again how he really values your friendship. However, after this experience, don't allow him to monopolize your time and attention again.

Dear Miss Wise.—Will you kindly print again in your column the directions for making a rose jar? WANT-TO-KNOW.

Am pleased to give you the recipe, but as this is the second time it has appeared in this column within the past few weeks, must preface my reply with a request for others who may want it before the summer is over to clip it out now and paste in their cook book, and not ask to have it reprinted because it was lost or mislaid. Rose petals are gathered day by day and put with all more. Some of the oils can be left out if necessary.

Dear Miss Wise.—Will you please give me a recipe for cherry salad? A COOK.

To make a delectable salad, wash cherries, remove stones and fill cavities thus made with filbert nut meats; arrange in nests of crisp lettuce leaves and serve with mayonnaise dressing. To seed cherries easily, insert a fork in the cherry in the opening made by the stem and lift the seed out. Your cherry will be left whole and there will be very little loss of juice. With a little practice one can seed cherries in this way very rapidly.

Dear Dolly.—Will you please give me names and addresses of publishing houses that accept short moving picture scenarios? MOVIE FAN.

I should advise you to buy one of the moving picture magazines, and obtain the addresses of moving picture producing companies that buy scenarios. Publishing houses do not buy them.

HUSBAND CATCHES WIFE WITH LOVER-STABBED; WIFE SENTENCED TO PEN

The old McGee home place on Twelfth street, just east of Waller street which, in the past, was the scene of murders and other crimes, produced a near-tragedy Sunday morning about 6:30.

John Braden, a stone cutter, upon going to the house, surprised George Sally in the company of his wife, Mrs. Emma Webb Braden, it is alleged. He struck at him but missed him. Sally, so Braden claims, whipped out a knife and commenced slashing Braden, severing an artery in the muscle of his left arm, striking his collar but failing to touch the neck and also cutting him in the back of the coat.

Police got a tip Sunday night that the couple had been seen entering a moving van in the West End. Sally escaped into the bottom before the officers could surround him but Mrs. Braden was taken into custody. She was fined $25 and costs in police court Monday and sentenced to one year in the Cincinnati workhouse.

Blending profusely Braden bolted from the house with Sally at his heels. Braden appealed to a man named Crawford living in a house on the rear end of the lot, to protect him against further attack, declaring that the other man was bent on killing him. Crawford was engaged in repairing some shoes at the time. Picking up an iron last he rushed to the defense of Braden. Sally then disappeared down a nearby alley.

Big Sum Paid To Mrs. Jean McKell

Cincinnati, June 14.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, through former Governor Judson Harman, today paid over to Mrs. Jean McKell, of Chillicothe, Ohio, the sum of $133,910.00, which represents the judgment for $125,000 and interest on the same, given Mrs. McKell in the local United States District Court in her suit against the railway company for the recovery of damages for alleged breach of contract on the part of the railway company.

This suit had been in the local Federal Courts since October, 1902, and was twice brought to the door of the United States Supreme Court upon applications for writs.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the greatest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for women's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

A killing is reported to have occurred on the excursion steamer Homer Smith near Louisville. A white man is said to have killed one of the colored crewmen. We have no particulars.—Gallipolis Tribune.

OLD AGE A CRIME!

Some people are young at 60—red cheeked, ruddy and vigorous. Others are old at 40—joints beginning to stiffen up at bit; step beginning to lug, and lose its springiness; occasional touches of pain in the back; feel tired without cause, and possibly a twinge of rheumatic pain.

In most cases these are the danger signals to warn you that the kidneys are not promptly doing their work of throwing off the poisons that are always forming in the body. To neglect these natural warnings is a crime against yourself. If you have these symptoms, you can find prompt relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years, this has been the recognized remedy for kidney and bladder ailments.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Prices are 25c, 50c and $1.00. Get them at your druggists. Do not take a substitute.

Theodore Stern, the Cincinnati young man who disappeared a week ago Saturday from the home of his brother, Robert Stern, 1536 Seventh street, was located about midnight Saturday at the Haydock farm house in Kentucky, four miles below South Portsmouth. Stern had been kept under close watch at the farm house for two days and as he refused to talk was mistaken for a for-eigner in distress. He had been wandering in the hills of that locality for a week.

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work. They become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

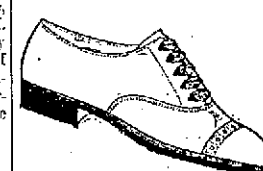

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, refreshing lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

BAND HELD PRACTICE

Passengers on the upper ferry were favored with music by the First Christian Band Sunday afternoon. The members of the band were guests of Capt. Davis and enjoyed their usual Sunday afternoon practice on the deck of the boat, rather than within the stuffy confines of a room down town. With the bathing bench in full blast, and music on the pierless, that part of the Ohio river resembled a real amusement place Sunday afternoon.

The Water Carnival Made A Decided Hit

A fair sized crowd attended the Rice & Dore water carnival Saturday night, the performance giving general satisfaction. The fancy swimming stunts, the diving acts, Neptune and the pretty nymphs, exciting water basket ball game between men and women, the unusually funny clown and the remarkable high dives all combined to round out a couple of hours of genuine and wholesome amusement. There was nothing to offend anyone and own-

TRINITY BIBLE CLASS

The big class had an attendance of 150 men Sunday morning and a deep interest in the lessons on David is being sustained from week to week. Prof. Finney surely can present these lessons in a most interesting way and this no doubt is a great factor in the splendid attendance that is being maintained through the summer.

The Pilgrim Singers gave an exceptional fine number Sunday morning, singing that beautiful classic "Across the Bar." The lesson of the day was "The blessedness of forgiveness." One of the most striking sentences made by the teacher was "you who sow your sins in secret shall reap them in public." David's life truly emphasizes this statement for his awful wrong against Uriah he paid most dearly in after life. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis said of David that "Never a man climbed so high and fell so low." Because he sinned the Lord said "The sword shall never depart from his house," and well was the sentence fulfilled. Continually attacked by enemies without the kingdom and finally by his in this life.

MANY ENJOYED THE BATHING BEACH SUNDAY

Although the formal opening is not scheduled until next Saturday, hundreds of people visited the Pelee's Bathing Beach along the Ohio river front east of Officers street Sunday afternoon. About two hundred of them enjoyed their first swim of the season.

Expressions of surprise and delight were heard from all sides as the visitors noted the improvements that had been made. The place is an amusement park and bathing beach combined, and promises to be the most popular spot in the city this summer.

Abundant shade is found on the bank, and all the trees have been dressed in a coat of spotless white. In the center of a group of tents is one utilized as an office and information bureau. Here bathers purchase their tickets for bathing, rent bathing suits, deposit their money and valuables, and make complaints and suggestions.

Just a little north of the office is a row of seven large tents, each containing a large number of dressing rooms, where the bathers change from street attire to bathing costume.

In the center of this group is a tent containing a half dozen shower baths, which are at the disposal of the bathers. Water for the shower baths comes from the city water mains, so that no matter how muddy the water in the river is, one can be assured of a

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Children's Day exercises in many of the Bible schools ensued an increase in the Sabbath school attendance Sunday. Trinity came back into first place with 1001, an increase of about 200 over one week ago, when Christian occupied first place with over 1000. Christian suffered a decrease of 300. First Presbyterian jumped into the 500 class again Sunday, five schools being above the 500 mark. Trinity and Second Presbyterian went into the 600's. Local Man Hunts Brother

The Gullipolis Tribune says that P. T. Wall of the Bulletin received a letter from E. P. Wall, dated at a Portsmouth hotel, asking if he could be his long lost brother, P. T. Wall, whom he had not seen for 35 years.

P. T. had to answer no, as none of his brothers ever wandered from home.

Face Eruptions Have Deep Significance

Often They Indicate Impurities Deep in the Tissues.

The results shown by G. S. S. in clearing the skin reveal how scratching and deep cleansing are necessary to get rid of the impurities that cause skin troubles. Facial eruptions are auto-poisoning of the body. They are the result of impurities deep in the tissues. First people realize this to be true. And yet it is a difficult matter to convince such people that they should avoid those harmful drugs such as mercury, iodine or potash, arsenic and so on. G. S. S. gives just as good effect without the destructive results, because it is more searching. It goes deeply into the circulation wherever the blood flows but it does not remain to clog the system. And its effect is complete and thorough as indicated by blood tests. There is no G. S. S. product of nature that is rated one of the most potent purifiers known for the complete elimination of blood troubles.

Maccabees Honor Departed Members

Members of Portsmouth Tent No. 494, Knights of Maccabees, observed their annual memorial services at Greenlawn cemetery Sunday morning and later attended morning services at the First Baptist church in a body. Rev. T. H. McAfee, pastor of the church, delivered a memorial sermon.

The lodge members met at the hall, corner of Gallia and Gay streets, about eight o'clock, and shortly afterward marched in a body to the cemetery, headed by the First Christian church band. Each member carried a bouquet of flowers, which he deposited on the grave of a departed brother. Twelve knights have answered the final roll call from the local tent, and the graves of all of them were laden with flowers.

WOMEN NEED HELP.

A Woman's work is hard. Her worries are more for they tear down her nerves. A melancholy semi-illness results. Liquid tonics may help—until they ruin the system. And, if they are based on drugs, the user faces an even graver peril to both character and system.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and nobody can tell. Brush it through hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wiry and ashy, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhance its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 60 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Pleads Guilty To Charge Of Delinquency, Simms Fined $200

Charles Simms, of Sciotoville, accompanied by his attorney, Judge A. Z. Blair, voluntarily came into juvenile court, Monday afternoon, withdrew his former plea of not guilty, and entered a plea of guilty to an affidavit charging him with contributing to the delinquency of Florence Ketter, a seventeen year old girl of Sciotoville.

Judge Beatty fined Simms $200 and costs and sentenced him to serve three months in the Cincinnati workhouse. The workhouse sentence was suspended pending good behavior, and on condition that the accused remain out of schools.

Clemency was exercised by the court in Simms' case because of his attitude, his voluntary confession of guilt which saved the expense of a trial, and out of consideration for his wife and three-months old babe.

Arrangements were made by Judge Beatty to deliver the Ketter girl, who has been in the juvenile ward of the county jail since her arrest about a week ago, into the custody of relatives, and she will not be committed to the Girls' Industrial School, as was originally intended.

STRIKE ON, ALL CHICAGO WALKS

14,000 EMPLOYEES ON STREET AND ELEVATED SYSTEMS WALK OUT

Chicago, June 14.—Chicagoans—approximately 1,500,000—walked, motored and used steam roads to their work today. The strike of 14,000 street car employees went into effect at midnight last night. Not a wheel on the 1,310 miles of track of the surface and elevated lines turned after 4 o'clock this morning when the last crews took their cars into the barn. It was the first time in a generation that all street car service in Chicago was completely tied up.

The strike was carried out without any disorder according to reports. Several hundred policemen were on guard at the various car barns throughout the city to watch property and prevent crowds from congregating. The men cheered as they left their barns.

Orders to strike were issued after an all day conference yesterday of union leaders, transportation company officials and Mayor Thompson in a vain attempt to bring about arbitration. Neither would yield. The strikers had demanded a guarantee of a wage increase. Officials of the companies refused this demand. To meet it, company officials said would mean an increase of $1,400,000 annually. W. D. Mahon, international president of the street car men's union, attended the conference.

Officials said that no attempt would be made to operate cars today. Approximately three million fares are collected on the two electric systems daily. The surface lines collect 2,400,000 and the elevated 600,000. There are 3,125 cars operated daily by the surface lines and 1,518 on the elevated, which operates 215 miles of track. The surface line operates 1,695 miles. Hurried preparations were made overnight by officials of street lines to bring to work today the great armies of clerks in stores, office workers and others in business in the downtown district. Hundreds of trains are added to the schedules. Taxicabs did a rushing business and the "jitney" buses which heretofore have failed to make

YACHT RAMS LINER, TWO ARE KILLED

New York, June 14.—C. K. G. Billing's steam yacht, Vanadis, reached Gloucester, Long Island, early today with the body of John J. Brown of Boston, one of the two victims of a collision in Long Island Sound last night between the yacht and the big White passenger steamer Bunker Hill, of the Metropolitan line. The body of the other victim, George H. Kendrick, also of Boston, was brought back to New York by the Bunker Hill when she returned earlier in the night with a hole in her side 30 feet high and nearly 20 feet long. Brown and Kendrick and three others injured in the accident were passengers on the Bunker Hill bound for Boston. The Vanadis rammed the passenger steamer in a thick fog off Eaton's Neck at the eastern end of Huntington Bay. The yacht backed out of the hole in the Bunker Hill's side with her bow smashed and festooned with iron bedsteads and other furniture swept away from the liner. Brown was picked up from the water by the crew of the yacht with both legs broken. He died an hour later. Kendrick was crushed to death as he sat to dinner in the dining saloon of the Bunker Hill. The life boats of the Bunker Hill were strung out on their davits and

The old McGee home place on Twelfth street, just east of Waller street which, in the past, was the scene of murders and other crimes, produced a near-tragedy Sunday morning about 8:30. John Braden, a stone cutter, upon going to the house, surprised George Sally in the company of his wife, Mrs. Emma Webb Braden, it is alleged. He struck at him but missed him. Sally, so Braden claims, whipped out a knife and commenced stabbing Braden, severing an artery in the muscle of his left arm, splitting his collar but failing to touch the neck and also cutting him in the back of the coat.

Sally Closely Pursues Braden
Bleeding profusely Braden bolted from the house with Sally at his heels. Braden appealed to a man named Crawford living in a house on the rear end of the lot, to protect him against further attack, declaring that the other man was bent on killing him. Crawford was engaged in repairing some shoes at the time. Picking up an iron bar he rushed to the defense of Braden. Sally then disappeared down a nearby alley.

Officers Benzo, Moore and Smith pursued him through the North End but he escaped in the direction of the Chillicothe pike and all further trace of him was lost.

Braden and Wife Were Estranged
Braden and wife have been living apart most of the time, but continued on friendly terms. He claims that only Saturday night he turned over all of his money to his wife. Sally and the woman have been under police surveillance for the past year or more. He was caught in her company at the time she lived in the Morrow flats on Jefferson street and was given a long workhouse sentence. The police claim that she clothed Sally with part of the money her husband gave to her.

PEACE LOOMS UP IN WAR TORN MEXICO?

Washington, June 14.—Attention of Washington officials was focused again today on the military situation in Mexico where there was a possibility of important developments which might bring ultimate peace in the southern republic.

Chief interest centers in the outcome of the prospective battle between Carranza troops and Villa forces for the possession of Mexico City now in the hands of Villa's men. Advice received here from Carranza sources at Vera Cruz said that General Pablo Gonzalez, a Carranza commander, who is now moving toward Mexico City, had been approached by members of the convention party from the Mexican capital, with an offer of an armistice. His answer is said to have been that the forces in Mexico City had better join the Carranza forces or evacuate the city without shedding blood. According to the same information Gonzalez gave the delegates 24 hours to return and present his proposal to the convention.

General Carranza has already put in a bid for recognition, basing it on a claim that he controls a large territory and has instituted civil administration there. Although making no requests for recognition, Gen. Villa has replied favorably to President Wilson's recent suggestion that the factions in Mexico unite for peace.

Maytorena states that he has urged Generals Urbalejo, Acosta and Trujillo to use scrupulous care not to violate the Naco agreement and expose this city to the slightest danger from firing. He adds that but for the fact that the United States is urging him to refrain from attacking border towns he would out the Carranza forces from Agua Prieta in short order.

El Paso, Tex., June 14.—American and Mexican officials here and at Juarez today awaited expectantly the arrival of George G. Carothers, special representative of the United States in Villa territory and Miguel Diaz Lombardo, foreign minister in Villa's cabinet. Carothers last night stated they had left Agua Calientes and should reach the border today. It was expected they would bring authentic information relative to the military situation along the Villa-Oregon front between Leon and Lagos. Whether Lombardo would bring word as to General Villa's attitude toward the proclamation of General Carranza was uncertain as it was considered doubtful if the Carranza proclamation had reached Agua Calientes before his departure.

Frankfort, Ky., June 14.—Before the largest crowd of the season Portsmouth grabbed both ends of a double header played here Sunday, the scores being 7 to 4 in the curtain raiser and 13 to 5 in the final.

May Rejoin Club

The Chillicothe club is bending every energy to have Pitcher Frank Moore rejoin the team. Manager Devore feels sure that Moore, who is one of the best hurlers in the league, will bring the club $1,000 before the season ends. Moore is the pitcher who left the Babes to return to a $25,000 farm his relatives own.

Asked For Release

Chuck McDaniels, who has been with the Greenboro, N. C. team in the Carolina Association since the season opened, arrived home Saturday. Displeased with the way things were running, along on his team McDaniels asked for his release and secured it. He was with the Maysville and Trouton teams last year and should have no trouble in catching on with an Ohio State league team as he is a splendid all round catcher and a good hitter.

Long Larry McClean Suspended By McGraw

John J. McGraw says he is through with Long Larry McClean. Cincinnati fans were through with the big backslider several years ago. Following a knock down, drag out, McGraw had with McClean over in St. Louis last week, he has suspended Larry and says he will keep him from playing ball until he makes up his mind to behave himself. Two bad that some players, especially those of the caliber of McClean, who have lots of talent, cannot take the game seriously and keep in condition to give their team the best that is in them.

Scout Band to Meet

The Boy Scout band will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Reinhardt, 2009 Seventh street. All members are requested to be present.

TEAM HOME TOMORROW

Well, fans the team will be home tomorrow. And the Spencerites will have as their opponents the Charleston Senators, who will make their 1915 appearance at Millbrook Tuesday, headed by that able and resourceful leader, Biddy Beers.

Looks Like Chicago Or Detroit

It begins to look like the pennant in the American league will come west this year unless the Boston Red Sox take a decided brace. The Chicago and Detroit teams are playing consistent ball and if their pitchers hold up it is probable that one of these clubs will come through and grab the hunting.

LOCALS WERE DEFEATED ON SATURDAY

Babes Won Game 19 to 8

The Pond Creek Centers journeyed all the way to the Pond Creek Babes diamond Sunday to get defeated. The score was 19 to 8 in favor of the Babes. A big crowd witnessed the game.

PARK IS NOW A REGULAR

Pitcher Park graduated last Friday from the Kentucky University and he will now be a regular member of the Lexington Colts. He should be a fine drawing card around the Cary circuit as he is said to be one of the classiest pitchers that ever broke into the O. S.

STEELMAKERS WON FROM CHILICOTHE

The Whittaker-Olesner company's team, who journeyed to Chillicothe Sunday, returned with the scalp of the Babington nine, the locals winning by a score of 7 to 3 before a fair-sized crowd. The pitching of Samson and Shultz featured the game. Shultz retired in the third inning on account of a badly sprained ankle. The game in figures:

TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, O., June 14.—On next Saturday the Ohio State Championship Tennis tournament will be opened on the courts of the East End club, this city, and a big field of entrants is assured, because of past tournaments at the Panama Exposition national stars will not be in so large number as last year and a better opportunity for honors is given to the Ohio players.

KEEP EYE ON SOUTHWORTH

Guess that boy Billy Southworth isn't sleeping alone since he leaped into the American league with one hop. In Saturday's Cleveland-Boston game he lined out a single and a triple out of three times up and accepted three chances without a skip. One grand ball player this lad, he will make all the outfielders in the American sit up and take notice by his brilliant work in the field and at the bat.

Two Players Hurt

Misfortune overtook the Clippers in their game with the Yankees at the St. Louis park Sunday afternoon. Dick Gardner, the team's catcher had the right forefinger of his left hand broken in two places by a foul tip and Ralph Mantel, the third sacker, sprained his ankle so badly that he had to be removed to his home at Third and Gay streets in an automobile.

Rains Are Costly

The Red management is certainly 1000 hugs as the Glans are great favorites in Cincinnati. In playing in hard luck this season, in addition to having a flock of week day games postponed on account of rain the Glans were unable to go to the mat with the New York Giants Sunday in Redland house of rain. This was a hard blow and the game no doubt would have been witnessed by possibly 12,000 fans as the Glans are great favorites in Cincinnati.

Sold Three Lots. The Cropper-Jordan Realty Company sold three lots in the Long Meadow addition to Contractor Scott Saturday.

J. DEVORE IN GAME

After being out of the game almost three weeks Manager Josh Devore of the Babes donned a uniform Saturday and played a couple of innings against Biddy Beers club. If Josh can get back in the game regularly it will mean much to the Babes as prior to his injury he was only hitting the ball at a 500 clip.

BAT GAME BOY

Battling Nelson, the former lightweight champion, is out again with a challenge for Freddy Welch for a crack at the title. Bat offers to make a match with the title-holder at Denver, but asks that the distance be made 45 rounds, in which event he will ask nothing in his share of the purse, permitting Welch to take the entire purse of $20,000.

JERRY HOFFER RELEASED

Unconditionally has Pitcher Jerry Hoffer of the Wheeling team been released. He was with Portsmouth last spring and Scout Billy Doyle bought him and sent him to the Cleveland A. A. team. He was known as the lad with the smoke ball, but he refused to take the game seriously.

AFTER NEW PITCHER

The management of the local team has lined out for a new pitcher to take the place of McCall. President Gableman is hopeful that he may be able to induce Hubert Baldwin of Highland to join the local team. Baldwin according to a report received here was recently married in Richfield.

MIKE HAVING HITTING SLUMP

Mike O'Day is having a hard time rolling his hits safe for the Wheeling club. His latest swatting average is only .217, which is not very high for an outfielder. Mike made three hits Saturday and should soon be hitting at his normal gait.

Thimmes Is Hitting Hard

Thimmes has certainly been exciting the ball for Portsmouth and he has been hitting hard and thrifty. He made four hits in the two games at Frankfort Sunday.

Dilly Is Laming Pill

Dillhoefer is developing in to one of the team's hardest hitters. He has cracked out two homers in as many days and a good many of his wallopers this season have netted him extra bases.

May Cut Salaries

There is talk of club owners in the American Association slashing salaries. A meeting has been called in Chicago and drastic action about this line may be taken. There is a disposition to slash salaries all around this season because of small attendance.

A Classy Outfield

The Rocky Mount team, which is being piloted by Manager Ray Ryan, who formerly bossed the Chillicothe Babes, is playing fine ball in the Virginia league. Who do you suppose Ryan has in his outfield? Oh, only Bittle, Okey Gray and Ebel. They are former well-known Ohio State sluggers. Jimmy Edwards is on first for Ryan and is batting second.

Game Called In Fifth
The game between the Tigers and Athletics was called in the fifth on account of rain. The Tigers won by the score of 8 to 5. Ballany started pitching for the Athletics, but retired in the third in favor of Devore, who put up a fine article of twirling the remaining part of the game. Forster played a swell game for the Tiger boys, securing three hits in three times up. Hudson was slightly wild in the opening rounds and allowed the Athletics to lunch hits in each inning except the fifth. He steadied down, however, and was pitching good ball when the game was called.

TEAMS SHIFT TUESDAY
There is a general shift all round in the Ohio State league. Portsmouth comes home to meet Charleston, Chillicothe will stop off in Innton to play four games and Frankfort goes to Lexington for a four game stay.

FANS LIKE KANE
Charleston fans are well pleased with the work of umpire Kane. They insist that he is one of the best umpires that ever broke into the Ohio State league.

CAR LOAD OF OVERLANDS

A car load of 1915 Overland automobiles, consigned to F. E. Dower, the local agent, was unloaded Saturday. They were delivered to Dr. J. F. York, of Setonville, Oscar Coburn, Sr., of New Boston, and W. A. Russell, of this city.

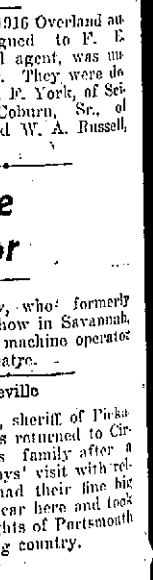

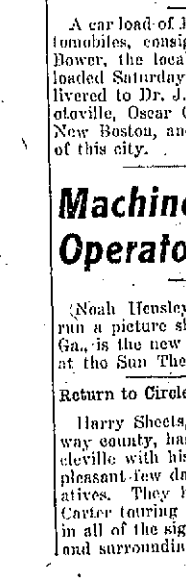

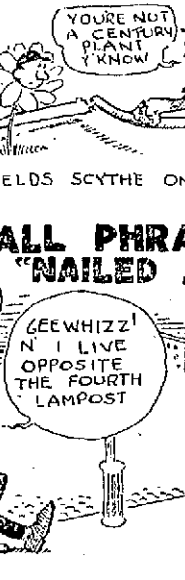

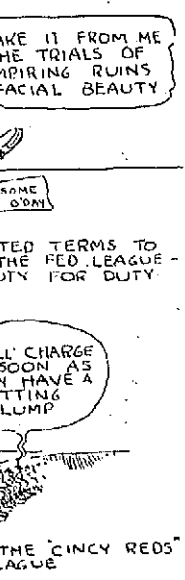

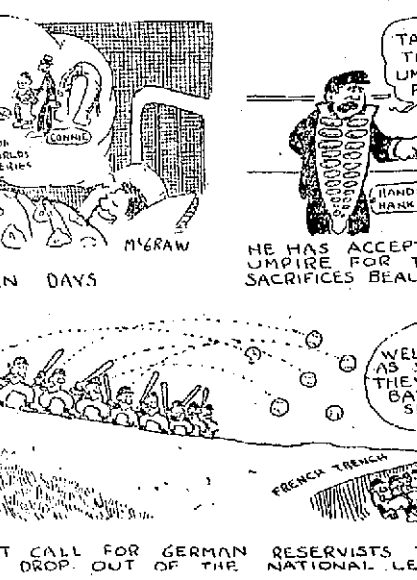

Machine Operator

Noah Hensley, who formerly ran a picture show in Savannah, Ga., is the new machine operator at the Sun Theatre.

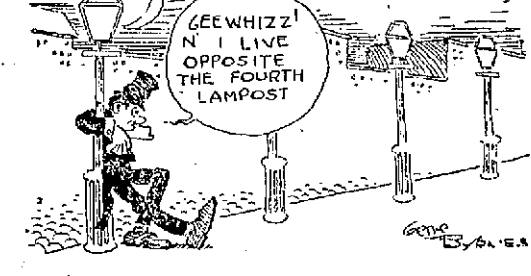

Return to Circleville

Harry Sheets, sheriff of Pickaway county, has returned to Circleville with his family after a pleasant few days' visit with relatives. They had their fine big Carter touring car here and took in all of the sights of Portsmouth and surrounding country.

JUST A THOUGHT.

The country has been full of rumors, for a week or so, that Germany was going to buy up all the munition factories in this country and then promptly shut them down so that the chief source of supply for her enemies would be cut off.

They make a story that administrators flatteringly to German efficiency, but one that is born of fertile imagination and a more or less laudable desire to boost the prices of steel stocks. The greatest contractors to the Allies for supplies of war, are the Bethlehem Steel works. Its stocks has climbed around a hundred per cent this year and it is not at all likely that Charlie Schwab and the others who formed and managed it are going to quit making hay while the sun shines by selling out, or transferring control.

But this talk brings up a thought on that preparedness for war about which we hear so much and the wonder is that it has not before been presented. This is that the government, as one of the best precautions for defense, should establish or see that the same is done, in the center of the country, amply equipped works and factories for turning out powder and ordinance. As it is now the factories given to the production of these supplies are mostly located rather close to the Atlantic seaboard and if the country is so vulnerable to invasion as the proponents of preparedness for war claim, they would, in the event of conflict, fall readily and quickly into the hands of the invaders.

A PARTIAL REMEDY.

Considering the frightful total taken by the deadly automobile, the Parkersburg Journal falls to speculating upon the best means of safeguarding from its ravages and suggests that every person, expecting to drive a machine before being first permitted to do so, should undergo an examination and receive a certificate of fitness; in addition to being required to give a bond to operate his machine carefully and to make reparation for injuries inflicted through his carelessness or negligence.

Undoubtedly this would help, let us say considerably, since its result would be to visibly affect the number of machines bought and operated, and would also dispose of boys and girls as drivers to a large extent.

Still, it would not reach the chief cause of the accident mortality wrought through the use of the automobile. This is not so much the result of incompetency, as recklessness and negligence. It is in the American nature to take a chance and of results he is in a large part heedless. Inherently the automobile is not a particularly dangerous vehicle; indeed, seeing the vain and careless manner in which it is so commonly handled and the yet comparatively few mishaps that ensue, we sometimes almost conclude it is altogether harmless. Our idea as to the best method of making it altogether docile would be the certain and strict infliction of penalties provided against its misuse. You can't very effectively punish the fellow, who speeding bursts a tire and hurls himself and his fellow joy riders on an eternal hike, you can't levy a judgment on the heedless one who tries to beat a train over the crossing, but authorities can fine and penalize with stiff penalties those who violate regulations and the ordinary requirements of prudence and thus enforce to the widest measure safe and sane driving. It is because there is practically no enforcement of traffic laws and ordinances that there is so much reckless driving, though let it be said that comparatively there is less and less as the use of the machine becomes more common. It is to be reckoned that the time will eventually come when there will be no more scorching than there was racing in the days when the horse propelled vehicle was the most general method of recreation. Let us repeat, it is our belief that the day can be hastened by diligent and impartial enforcement of statute and ordinance.

Poor old Colonel Blenkner, door keeper of the assembly for so many years that no living soul other than himself can reckon them, his faith in human nature is pathetic. He actually went through the members' desks, after they had gone home for good, to see if he couldn't find something they left behind and return it to the state.

Doc Demburg sailed Friday for Berlin, or as near thereto as he could get, but we still have William J. with us in perpetuity.

"THE HEAVEN BORN BANNER"

WILL GET THEIRS.

Passports, issued in this country to Leon Rines and Karl Reckungel, have been ordered cancelled because these two worthies, now in Germany, have not only published articles in the German papers denouncing the American government and President Wilson, but have gone to the extreme of making declaration in the same manner that they are ashamed of their American citizenship.

They are surely a precious pair of rascals, claiming protection of a powerful government as its citizens and then basing far away to malign and repudiate it. It is regretful that there is no physical way of punishing the wretches, beyond cancelling their passports. Still they will get in a keener and more exerting way what they deserve. They are right now men without a country and when peace comes and the passions of war begin to subside they will find themselves outcasts from all decent men. For the betrayer and the traitor always finds the level of his crime.

There is nothing that hasn't a drawback. Michigan, after taking but a homoeopathic dose of progressivism, finds her great industry, the Ford Motor Company, can not incorporate therein, because in her haste to war against capital she limited the capital of organized companies to twenty-five million, just an even fourth of what Ford has.

In view of revelation being made from day to day in an investigation of grudging conditions at Annapolis academy, it is a fair surmise that "the honor of the navy" does not begin to sprout until the certificates are handed out.

What fools, after all those Allies must be. They are buying untold millions bushels of grain in this country, and yet, according to the voracious G. O. P. organs, Argentina grains are so cheap that they are being brought to this country and sold below the home products.

As an expert The Times of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, gives the opinion, that the effort to prove a fellow-citizen insane because he gave sometimes as much as a penny for a tip should and probably will fail.

One hundred and fourteen years ago this month, the Pasha of Tripoli declared war against the United States and fifty-four years ago France declared neutrality in the civil war.

It is grossly apparent that this patriotic profession of the G. O. P. politicians and organs to "stand by Wilson" is taken with a huge ink of mental reservation.

Marion is considering an ordinance to put a muffer on all the roosters in town—that is the feathered one. Her slumbers may still be disturbed at any hour of the night by the ungodly tooting of the auto horn.

The state board of health doesn't like the sewer arrangements of the Peorless. That is not surprising and the town can felicitate itself that it has a system of sufficient importance to be found fault with.

Bryan is mistaken, as usual, when he sees already a strong revision in favor of peace. There were none worth counting that ever wanted war.

Marion mourns because even her semi-professional bill team has melted into the dim, though not distant past. And to think there was a day when it aspired to rank baseball with the Peorless.

Josephus Daniels shows a disposition to side along with Bryan, but at that if Wilson ordered the navy to clear for action we feel Josephus would not back away from signing.

No matter how exciting the game it falls after awhile. Mexico has a new president, but its the first one in almost four months.

Hush, now, don't say another word. Woodrow is all to the good, for Teddy himself says he is back of him in every word.

Evident that the Michigan resort man who calls his hotel the Ruggleshouse doesn't believe there is anything in a name.

Agreed with the Chicago Tribune, Mr. Bryan has resigned and the country is.

Say, remarks the sage of the Edwardsville, Illinois, Intelligence, have you noticed that a man never shows his temper without first losing it?

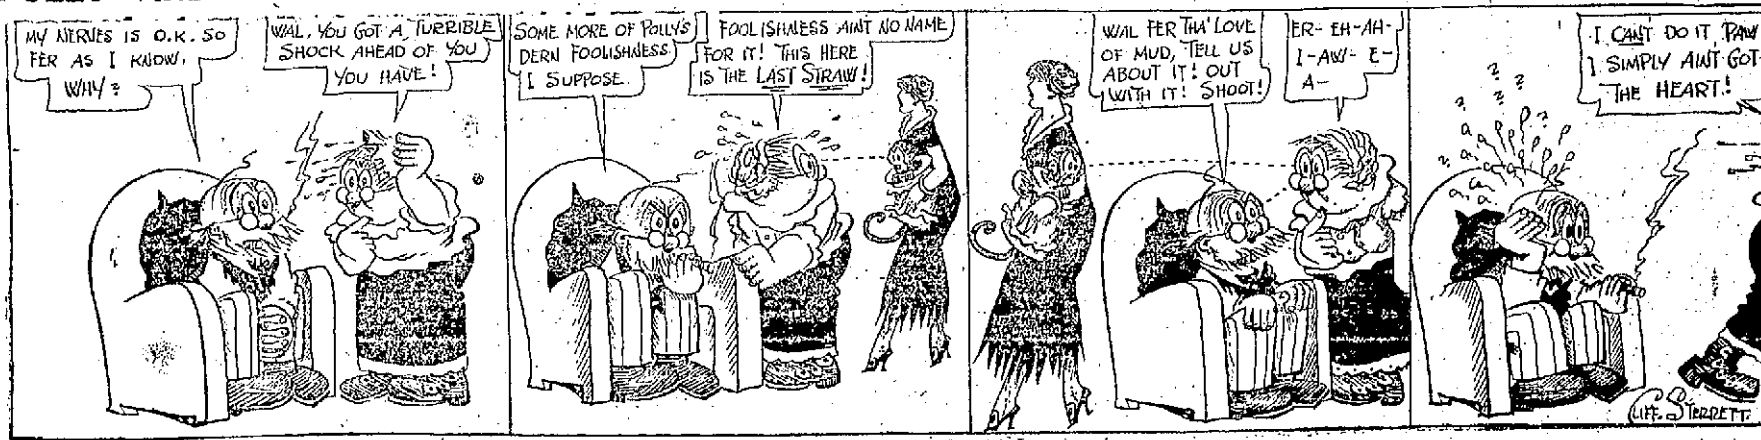

Eighty-eight million gallons of whiskey were distilled in the United States last year. Did you get your share?

Ten billion copies of newspapers were printed in 1914. To this grand total The Times contributed 3,410,000.

There are forty-eight states. May be you will be able to remember this tomorrow and then again you may not.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Sketches of Life OLD NEW YORK City-mag.

New York June 14.—The Century Theater has capitulated to Broadway. Instead of being a "temple of drama" as was originally intended it will produce henceforth Ned Weyburn's Town Topics which will be after the manner of the Ziegfeld Follies shows.

Planned to emulate the Theater Francaise in Paris and the Hofburg in Vienna, the Century will soon become a typical London music hall. The roof will be rebuilt and the Century Lyceum destroyed to construct places for dining, window and dancing, after a slap bang vaudeville and whirlwind revue.

The Century will be operated along the lines of Continental music halls, such as the Empire and Palace in London and the Winter Garden in Berlin. The show will start off with vaudeville skills, then a revue clash and glitter after which the patrons may adjourn to tall glasses, tinkling ice and laugo variations.

Life on the farm is great sport for some city boys. The eight-year-old son of a well known Broadwayite has been visiting on a farm. The father got this letter the other day:

Dere father:—I am haveing a lync time. I no a kid named Skeets Wilson and mo and him are it up here. We betu three fellers up today and I got the tooth we knocked out of one's mouth. Tonite we are going to steel old man Link's cow and entil the tassel off her tale. I no a hog I can ryde in the pig pen and a mule kiked me yesterday. I got a pet rat to take to bed with me and tomorrow I am going to get a snake to put down Aunt Em's back. Won't that be rediculous?—Willie.

James Hebron, who for thirty years was chairman at Delmonico's—Dear Old Del—and who called Tammany's "chieftains, Wall street kings and social leaders by their first names, related in amassed a fortune of more than a million dollars while earning $1 a day at his door opening job.

Jimmy is now passed sixty and is weighted down with troubles. He is trying to recover $30,000 worth of real estate which he says his son got away from him when his mind was not working right. The son, he says, blew in the money in Wall street.

Jimmy made his money by tips on stocks given to him by the prominent men who dined at Delmonico's.

Suppose civilization as we have known it does disappear from Europe. A staggering thought, but there is no need to despair. There is hope! Also there is a reason! Just when we begin to lose our grip over the wanton brutality of Yurup along comes Julia Selton, M. D. with an idea. (Announced "idea" in Brooklyn and all along the Jersey coast.)

Miss Selton has founded the Home of New Civilization in Ossawana-on-the-Hudson. You may interview her on new thought ideas for a dollar or so an interview and you may rent bungalows for from $60 to $225 per season.

It looks like civilization might be saved after all the worrying we have done about it lately.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, says a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double duty. They become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

As the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Doc Koko's COLUMN

Brightness of Life
A thought that is winged from a friend to friend.
Doesn't seem such a wonderful thing.
Yet it carries the prayer for a joy without end.
And it throbs with a big, friendly ring.

A mere word of cheer in the shadow of night,
When discouragement darkens the way,
Will illumine our hearts with the glorious light
Of a hopeful and sun-brightened day.
When failure confronts us and darkens our goals,
Have we long for the clasp of a hand!
It is then that we cry from the depths of our souls
For a friend who can just understand.

A bright, cheery smile often gives us the strength
That we lack in the vortex of strife,
For it lightens our load as we travel the length
Of the care-laden path we call life.

So we find, after all, that the things we thought small
Loom colossal above all the host.
That the best of God's gifts are the friends we can call
To our side when we need them the most.
